

Around The Town

Mrs. Lillian Martin, of Los Angeles, is visiting friends here.

J. A. Tarr & Company received a carload of Fords this week.

Chris Hoffman returned this week from a two weeks trip to the coast.

O. F. Kuencer left this week for the coast where he will spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Munz, of Signal, were Kingman visitors this week.

William Neagle and W. L. Kayser, of Hackberry, are Kingman visitors this week.

Tap Duncan arrived in Kingman Friday, after spending several days in Los Angeles.

The Carrow place, next to the courthouse has been greatly improved by a cement and iron-pipe fence.

Clarence Cornwall returned here from southern California, this week, and will now make his home here.

Mrs. June Rollo and Mrs. J. James left for the coast today. They expect to make their home in Los Angeles.

Superintendent R. A. Lassell spent the early part of the week visiting the schools at Peach Springs and Crozier.

E. J. Carter was in Kingman for a few days this week. Mr. Carter has been east for the past few months.

Mrs. Hattie Hagee and small daughter, of Winslow, stopped off in Kingman Friday for a visit with Walter Fair.

Mrs. Eleanor Armstrong returned to Swansea Sunday after spending a few days in Kingman visiting Mrs. Byron Duncan.

Dr. W. H. Bucher is spending a couple of weeks here visiting his sister, Mrs. S. D. Stewart, and his father, J. W. Bucher.

Rev. Luther B. Moore, Episcopal Minister, who is well known in Kingman, has been elected Chancellor Commander of the Flagstaff Knights of Pythias Lodge.

Frank Keefe, manager of the Bab-bitt Brothers Stores, accompanied by P. J. Moran, credit man for the company, spent several days here this week.

Mrs. Harry McComb, of Los Angeles, and Mr. McComb's sister, Miss Virginia McComb, of Pittsburgh, arrived in Kingman last night for a brief visit.

Mrs. E. Elmo Bollinger entertained 32 Kingman ladies at cards Thursday evening, in honor of her niece, Mrs. Williams. The party was held at the Rosetree. Refreshments were served by the Rosetree.

Mrs. J. P. Gideon returned home from Los Angeles Monday morning, having been in attendance at the bedside of her daughter Grace, who has been seriously ill. Since returning home the good lady has been confined to her bed by illness.

The Kensington Club met at the home of Mrs. Bryan Mensch Wednesday afternoon. After the meeting the ladies enjoyed dainty refreshments, which had been arranged for by the hostess at the "Ladies Bazaar."

Fred Feldwisch, a brother-in-law of R. L. Dirmick is visiting here, having come in from Denver about ten days ago. Mr. Feldwisch attended the meeting of the Mining Congress in Denver and then came on here to visit with relatives and look over the country. Mohave county, so far as he has seen it, looks good to him.

The Underwood Tire Company has just completed the painting of several tire ad signs on the corrugated iron fence surrounding the garage. In this manner they have availed themselves of all possible space for advertising purposes.

Mrs. Wm. Brown arrived from Los Angeles, Thursday, where she has been procuring medical treatment for her young son, who injured his eye some time ago. She returned to her home on the Sandy the same day.

John St. Charles has been at work on the Red Gap mines the past two months and is getting good results from the work. Kean St. Charles has been helping John in the work and it is expected that they will be able to open up a part of the mine that has not heretofore been touched.

Rev. Father Doyle, of St. Ann's Church at Needles, was a Kingman visitor yesterday. He reports that it is the intention of the people of the parish to rebuild the recently destroyed church building, the work to be commenced shortly after the first of January.

James Bone, who has inviting mining property in the Layne Springs section, is doing assessment work on neighboring properties. As mining is looking up in this county mine owners are doing a larger amount of assessment work than usual and few claims will go by the board this year. While many people have been waiting to see what congress might do in the recession of annual work, they are taking no chances and will do the work on every claim that they wish to hold.

H. S. Jones, general passenger agent for the C. B. & Q. Railroad, stopped off in Kingman this week for a visit with his nephew, "Casey" Jones. Thursday he and Casey, accompanied by "Cap" Hubbs made a trip to Oatman.

The Odd Fellows Hall has added new shades to the windows of the lodge room.

A. A. Park, who has been mining in the Wallapai for some months past, has returned to Kingman.

The Speed Boys

First Liar: "I'm so fast, I can read four columns of a newspaper at the same time."

Second Liar: "Call that fast? Listen, coming back from France the transport wasn't making time enough for me so I jumped off and swam so fast that when I climbed up the dock in Hoboken my clothes weren't even wet."

With Reservations

Kid: "Dad, buy me a tin horn?"
Dad: "No. You'd make me entirely too nervous with the noise."
Kid: "Aw, dad, I promise only to play it when you're asleep."

Lace and Satin Piece

Wide satin ribbon and Val lace give a good account of themselves in the attractive neckpiece shown above. It is a vestee and collar combined, with a small "V"-shaped chemisette of lace, set in the vestee. The collar and chemisette are edged with narrow lace.

Limited

"See here, private," shouted the lieutenant to the orderly, "do you know anything of the captain's whereabouts?"

The orderly removed the clothespins from his mouth and saluted. "You can't blame me for it," he answered aggrievedly. "He's only got one pair and he's wearing them now."

Summoning all the pathos possible into his voice, the amateur settlement worker was addressing his audience on the subject of certain poverty-stricken foreigners, who, if they weren't wretchedly miserable, at least ought to be.

"Think of it," he cried, dabbing at his eyes. "There are people down there who live on garlic alone! Imagine it! Garlic alone!"

"Well," called back the Old Grouch, as he made his way down the aisle toward the nearest exit, "if they live on garlic, they ought to live alone."

Accent on the "You"

The first sergeant, of brawny army but slender education, had proceeded well enough in the roll call until he came to the name, "Montague." He studied it for a moment and then took a chance.

"Mont-ai-g," he roared.
There came a titter from a dapper chap in the front rank. "Excuse me, sergeant," he corrected him somewhat primly, "not Mont-ai-g—Montag-you, and don't forget the 'you.'"

"All right, Montag-you," snorted the top kick. "For that you got three days fatig-ou and don't forget the 'you.'"
